

ALL TRAILS LEAD TO SAN ANTONIO

Dear Texas Trails Network Supporter:

This coming February 1, 2, and 3, ALL TRAILS LEAD TO SAN ANTONIO for the Texas Trails and Active Transportation Conference on the famous Riverwalk. There will not be a VALUE like this again so register soon and get your TTN member discount. You'll get:

- Five in depth, extended Wednesday Workshops at no extra charge covering Trail Building and Equipment, Complete Streets, Bicycle Coordination, Pedestrian Advocacy and more...
- Two days of international and national experts including Texas Senator Rodney Ellis, European award winning architect Jan Gehl, TREK Bicycle president John Burke and U.S. Congressman James Oberstar
- Over 40 highly diverse breakout sessions covering a multitude of topics related to trails
- Mobile workshops to get you out and about experiencing the trails in and near San Antonio
- Vibrant exhibit hall filled with knowledgeable vendors and products
- Enjoyable networking opportunities, awards, continuing education credits and great food

For the latest and most complete information on the conference, go to texastrails.biketexas.org.

To check out the conference on facebook, go to facebook.com/TTATconference. Like us and post comments to spread the word to your social group!

To become a sponsor of this, the premier event for outdoor enthusiasts in Texas, go to texastrails.biketexas.org/become-a-sponsor.

PLEASE FORWARD THIS MESSAGE ON TO OTHERS WHO WILL ALSO BENEFIT FROM THIS SPECIAL EVENT

See you in San Antonio!

John Rath
TTN Administrator
Conference Director