Sincerely,

The Plant Development Team at PDSI®

* A note about ASLA CEPH: Even though we have carefully researched the mandatory continuing education requirements published in the program descriptions, we suggest that, when in doubt, check by visiting the Texas Board of Architectural Examiners at www.tbae.state.tx.us The Texas Board of Architectural Examiners regulating Landscape Architects does not pre-approve any continuing education courses or activities. Final discretion is up to the board.
